TINTIN ET LA LUNE - OBJECTIF LUNE ET ON A MARCHÉ SUR LA LUNE

HERGÉ

On the occasion of the 90th anniversary of Tintin and the 50th anniversary of the first step on the Moon, Tintin's two iconic volumes combined in a double album.

In Syldavia, Professor Calculus develops its motor atomic lunar rocket and is preparing to leave for the Moon. But mysterious incidents undermine this project: the test rocket is diverted, an attempt to steal plans occurs... Who is hiding behind this? And will the rocket be able to take off?

We find our heroes aboard the first lunar rocket. But the flight is far from easy: besides the involuntary presence of Thompson and Thomson (which seriously limits the oxygen reserves), saboteurs are also on board. Will the rocket be back on Earth in time?

CORTO MALTESE - VOL. 14 EQUATORIA

CANALES / PELLEJERO / PRATT

After a bestselling relaunch, the next adventure from Canales and Pellejero is here...

It is 1911 and Corto Maltese is in Venice, accompanied by the National Geographic journalist Aida Treat, who is hoping to write a profile of him. Attempting to track down a mysterious mirror once owned by Prester John, Corto soon finds himself heading for Alexandria. Along the way, he meets the stunning Somalia-born German Ferida Schnitzer and her chaperone, the indomitable Sister Lise. Once in Egypt, Corto saves Winston Churchill from an attempted assassination by a group of nationalists before joining Henry de Monfreid and setting off for Zanzibar in the hopes of finding a notorious slave trader and picking up the trail of the mirror.

LA VÉRITABLE HISTOIRE DU SOLDAT INCONNU

TARDI

Don't miss this reprint of two hard-hitting, outspoken stories by one of contemporary comics' major creators.

Buried on November 11, 1918 under the Arc de Triomphe, author of simplistic and distressing adventure novels, considered a 'douche' by his trench companions, this is for Tardi who was the unknown soldier!

He immerses this anti-hero into a nightmarish delirium. The man who has spent his life creating despicable, unhealthy and harmful characters to please the public and satisfy his publisher, is bound to meet them. Confrontations, sometimes tinged with dark humor, are always violent and painful. This dreamlike narrative of a haunting narrative force, with a powerful and sumptuous design, is an essential piece of Tardi's work. Tardi opted to pair the piece with The National Razor, a screed against capital punishment written around the same time in his life.

LES NUISIBLES

PIERO MACOLA

An intimate tale that subtly speaks to the ills of today's society...

Po Valley, Italy, present day. Bruno lives alone and is obsessed with not making waves, being invisible. He regularly visits Maria who lives alone with her dog in a cabin on the river, since her husband's passing. Maria's daughter is trying to convince her to move in with her to the city to be safe from burglaries and smuggling, that are more and more frequent and blamed on foreigners.

Anton has been in Italy for 9 months, working under the table, living off odd jobs at construction sites. One day, he breaks his leg falling from a scaffold. Instead of taking him to the hospital, he's bundled off to a shelter, where he's covertly treated. But Anton steals their money and runs, hiding out in Maria's cabin...

LE LOUP

JEAN-MARC ROCHETTE

Between Melville (Moby Dick) and Erri de Luca (Le poids du papillon), an epic adventure and an ecological fable that questions the place of man in the animal kingdom.

At the heart of a wild valley of the Alps, a white wolf and a shepherd fight to their last limits, before making a deal and finding a way to live together. As in Ailefroide, Rochette once again celebrates the high mountains, their beauty, their violence; the commitment and humility it takes to survive. He also tries, through fiction, to find a way out of the conflict between two irreducible points of view: the shepherds who want to protect the life of their animals and the parks that try to save endangered species.

LES HEURES PASSÉES À CONTEMPLER LA MÈRE

GILLES LAHRER / SÉBASTIEN VASSANT

Through the memories, relationships, and the little family that surrounds Sandra, thirty-something and writer, abandoned by her publisher and ex-husband, the authors address the delicate subject of creation and filiation.

While she had abandoned writing in the hope of becoming a mother, she took up the pen to give birth to the novel that has always lived in her, but that she had not had the courage to tackle so far. The hours spent contemplating the mother. A book where she draws her portrait through that of her missing genitor. A delicate story in the form of a portrait of women.

À LA RECHERCHE DE MOBY DICK BASED UPON HERMAN MELVILLE

ISAAC WENS / SYLVAIN VENAYRE

A literary monument revisited on the occasion of the 200th anniversary of Herman Melville's birth.

Moby Dick or the whale, the original title of Melville's work, is not only about Captain Ahab's hunt around the world for the particularly fierce and impressive-sized whale who tore off one of his leg in the past and whose he swore revenge to. Almost half of the book is devoted to something else. The drama lived by Ahab and his crew is first of all to illustrate considerations erudite, moral and zany, about this fantastic animal, and what it represents. Through the journey of his main character, Melville also explores many complex themes that he considers universal: class and social status, Good and Evil, the existence of God and our place in this universe. The product of an eight-year work, À la recherche de Moby Dick is certainly the most innovative and ambitious adaptation of this monument of universal literature!

BRUNE PLATINE - INTÉGRALE

MARION MOUSSE / LISA MANDEL

One is called Brune, the other is Platine. They are partners in the agency they created together: "Brune Platine - Investigations of all kinds".

Their new client is looking for her father, who died when she was a child. Disturbing detail: she has around the neck a very old scar, which has recently reopened and no longer heals. Quickly, the investigation of Brune and Platine leads them in the Balkans, where they discover that their client's father was not the old UN peacekeeper that he claimed to be, but that he actually was called Vladimir and that he ran an orphanage. A story too good to be true? The two detectives wonder what really happens to Vladimir's little protégés...

L'EMPIRE ET LA COMÈTE

JEAN-PAUL KRASSINSKY

1774. Nikita Petrovich, astronomer of the Imperial Academy of Saint Petersburg, is forced to hire Ivan, a young assistant who is as impetuous as he is clumsy. But the trouble does not stop there: Nikita discovers that a comet is likely to crash soon in the distant Siberia. For the venerable astronomer and his blunderer assistant, a long and painful journey begins...

In this animal and initiatory fable, realized in direct color, Jean-Paul Krassinsky once again, emphasizes the wounds of human souls, the ordinary and tragicomic stupidity of existence...

DIDIER, LA 5^e ROUE DU TRACTEUR

PASCAL RABATÉ / FRANÇOIS RAVARD

For their first collaboration, Rabaté and Ravard give us a caustic 'rural romantic comedy' with lively dialogue and warm, tender art.

Didier lives with his sister Soazig on a small farm in Brittany. He's a very unhappy man: at 45 years of age, this Tour de France fan has never known real love. When he goes off to buy a reaper at auction from Régis, a drinking buddy and bankrupt farmer, he comes back without the farm equipment, but with his friend instead. It's love at first sight for Régis and Soazig, who smell sexual liberation on the breeze... Aware of his brother's distress, Soazig posts an ad for him on a dating site, unbeknownst to him. Didier's profile soon gets a bite from the very straightforward 'Coquinnette'...

AILEFROIDE, ALTITUDE 3954 M

JEAN-MARC ROCHETTE / OLIVIER BOCQUET

A real-life origin story that celebrates a generation of climbers at a time when mountaineers were becoming professionals in their own right, distinct from the amateur locals who had gone before them. But Ailefroide is also a Mark Twain-worthy coming-of-age tale that anyone – climbing enthusiast or otherwise – will relish. It serves as a reminder of those joyful moments in our youths when we feel more free than ever, take risks, fall in love, fight, laugh and joke. It also recalls the deeper moments when we realise that we are not, after all, immortal.

COMME UN CHEF

AURÉLIA AURITA / BENOÎT PEETERS

From the age of eighteen to twenty-five, Benoît Peeters was obsessed with cooking. A novelist, essayist, publisher, pupil of Roland Barthes and Hergé specialist, he has cooked up a culinary autobiography that looks back at his life as an intellectual gastronome in the pivotal '70s and '80s. His story brings not just hilarity galore, but also personal moments in which the young academic learns to appreciate the full spectrum of humanity from his kitchen. The artwork by Aurélia Aurita reveals how flavours can become colours, effortlessly guiding us through a detailed and joyful recreation of a time when people shared, and revelled in, carefree living.

HOLLYWOOD MENTEUR

LUZ

Immersing himself in multiple writings and testimonies, Luz delivers a documented album on one of the biggest Hollywood movies of all time.

In 1960, John Huston shot in the heart of Nevada one of his most ambitious films, The Misfits with Marilyn Monroe, Clark Gable and Montgomery Clift. Written by Arthur Miller, Marilyn Monroe's husband, this feature was to be the setting for her to show what a huge and talented artist she was. Instead, tragedies accumulate the time of filming. But how could such an ambitious film combining Hollywood biggest stars be turned into a resounding failure on its way out ? In this album, Luz dismantles the factory of the lie that is Hollywood by telling the backstage of the shooting of the mythical movie.

INDÉLÉBILES

LUZ

Indelible, like the inkstains on his fingers and the memories Luz has of his career as a cartoonist and journalist for Charlie Hebdo. A resolutely optimistic book of infectious humour in which Luz gives readers an intimate glimpse of goings-on at the paper, and his love of cartooning.

A young virgin from the provinces, new to Paris, Luz met Cabu, who took him under his wing and dragged him over to Charlie Hebdo. Over time, he became one of the pillars of the paper. In a long dream, he enumerates his memories... This is Charlie Hebdo like we've never seen it before.

IL FALLAIT QUE JE VOUS LE DISE

AUDE MERMILLIOD

The meeting of the graphic novel illustrator Aude Mermilliod and the novelist Martin Winckler. Two voices to break the silence on a topic that is still taboo: abortion.

If it offers alternative, abortion remains no less a traumatic event in a woman's life. And all the more painful that we keep it for ourselves, that we do not know how to express the ambivalence of the feelings and representations that accompany it. Anxiety, guilt, loneliness, physical suffering, and most importantly the impossibility to share our experience. With this book, Aude Mermilliod breaks the silence, mixing her testimony as a patient with that of the physician Martin Winckler. Their two paths meet and answer each other in a book that is powerful, necessary and peaceful.

ENFERME-MOI SI TU PEUX

ANNE-CAROLINE PANDOLFO / TERKEL RISBJERG

Six amazing life stories that question the too rarely explored abilities of the human spirit.

Between the end of the 19th century and the middle of the 20th century, women, the poor, the sick and the mad have no rights. Among them, Augustin Lesage, Madge Gill, the Facteur Cheval, Aloïse, Marjan Gruzewski and Judith Scott are locked up in a society that excludes them. They will, however, transform their lives into fabulous destinies. One day, from the bottom of their abyss, an irrepressible inspiration opens a door for them. Without culture, without artistic training, they magically enter a world of virtuoso creativity. Touched by grace or by a 'super power of the spirit,' they left us works that plunge us into an infinite mystery.

A COMME EIFFEL

MARTIN TRYSTRAM / XAVIER COSTE

What does the surprisingly smooth public life of Gustave Eiffel hide? We know his great works (his Tower, the structure of the Statue of Liberty, the Panama Canal...) but not the man. A paradoxical engineer (he practices magnetism, socializes with Victor Hugo and Freemasonry), Eiffel has a special relationship with women and particularly with his cousin Alice, whose initial will inspire the final shape of the Eiffel Tower.

Between historical reality and romantic approach, A comme Eiffel is the story of a modern Icarus: an ascent, a climax and an abyssal fall little known to the public.

PETIT PIERRE - LA MÉCANIQUE DES RÊVES

FLORENCE LEBONVALLET / DANIEL CASANAVE

Handicapped, hunchbacked, deaf and almost dumb, Pierre Avezard was born in 1909 in rural France. Suffering from Treacher Collins syndrome, he should not have survived. 83 years later, he passes away, leaving the traces of a life of passion and poetry, and in particular « Le Manège de Petit Pierre », a masterpiece of the rotary movement and Art Brut, which is as famous as the works of Picassiette or Facteur Cheval.

To recount the life of Petit Pierre, is to say the conditions of creation of the Art Brut but also to describe the evolution of France in the 20th century through its techniques: from handcarts to Concorde, the legendary aeroplane.

LA ZAD C'EST PLUS GRAND QUE NOUS

THOMAS AZUELOS / SIMON ROCHEPEAU

Who are the Zadists of Notre-Dame-des-Landes, really? What do they want? How do they live? After spending many weeks with them, the authors decided a documentary fiction would be the best way to depict the reality of life in the ZAD. 'ZAD' originally referred to a 'zone to be developed', but the acronym was repurposed by protesters to mean 'Zone to be Defended', often by citizen occupation preventing construction. The ZAD in question is on the site of Nantes proposed Grand Ouest airport. Thomas Azuelos and Simon Rochepeau pen a tale of struggle, beyond party lines and traditional movements, against capitalist land use and in favor of alternative lifestyles. The Zadists resist, organize as a group, and with the help of farmers who've also stayed behind, grow crops on wooded plots, dreaming of another way of life: 'We are an army of dreamers, men and women alike, and that is why we are invincible.'

MÉCANIQUES DU FOUET - VIE DE SAINTE EUGÉNIE

CHRISTOPHE DABITCH / JORGE GONZALES

The sublime and disturbing biography of a 'mistress'.

Eugénie Guillou was a nun before becoming a specialist in spanking and sexual staging in the Paris of brothels and debauchery of the early 20th century. Disappeared and forgotten, Christophe Dabitch investigated her life and drew an intelligent and disturbing story, sublimated by the elegance of the drawing by Jorge Gonzalez.

An authentic artistic prowess to classify alongside the erotic works of Aragon or Schiele.

LE TRAVAIL M'A TUÉ

GRÉGORY MARDON / HUBERT PROLONGEAU / ARNAUD DELALANDE

A great fictional investigation into workplace malaise.

Based on an authentic story, the book traces the path of an automobile engineer who sees his life deteriorate as his professional career is undermined by a dehumanized hierarchy. After a lengthy investigation, the authors tell in a fiction, how a system of harassment is implemented, at all levels of the hierarchy, to push the employees to the maximum of their capacities... a system that pushes them sometimes, to the irreparable...

UNE VIE - VOL. 4 SPANISH CIRCUS 1937

CHRISTIAN PERRISSIN / GUILLAUME MARTINEZ

After Martha Jane Cannary and Kongo, the new historical and romantic biography of Perrissin.

Returning from Shanghai penniless, Winston Smith starts looking for work in London to discover that in this year 1926, the word 'unemployment' is on everyone's lips. He ends up cleaning dishes in a restaurant, 13 hours a day, for a pittance. Only the writing of his first novel La Nuit allows him to hold on. One day, he decides to meet again Meredith, a young woman from a good family with whom he had become acquainted during his return trip, with the cynical hope of making a beautiful marriage... The years go by, and the unexpected success of his novel pushes him to end his unhappy marriage. Being unable to write a second book, Winston sinks to the bottom. He will owe his salvation to George Orwell who will take him along to Barcelona in order to fight by the Spanish Republicans...

LES CROCODILES SONT TOUJOURS LÀ: NOUVEAUX TÉMOIGNAGES D'AGRESSIONS SEXISTES

JULIETTE BOUTAN / THOMAS MATHIEU

Testimonies of women about street harassment and ordinary sexism transposed into comics.

After a first volume published in 2014, Thomas Mathieu decides to revive the Crocodiles Project. This time he works with the author Juliette Boutan. In an otherwise black and white realistic environment, they represent stalkers in the form of fluorescent green crocodiles, a process that contributes to the force and the impact of the project. In this way, the authors invite readers to adopt the feminine point of view in order to raise awareness about the abnormality of some behaviors of men who assume the role of dominant predators.

LES MEILLEURS ENNEMIS - INTÉGRALE

JEAN-PIERRE FILIU / DAVID B.

It was an American who first described the 'Barbary lands of the Mediterranean basin as 'the Middle East' – a region by which America, ever since its own revolutionary foundation, has always measured its power. Acclaimed historian Jean-Pierre Filiu and award-winning artist David B. here tell the story of the blockades, broadsides and betrayals of this foreign affair – a wary co-dependency that, from the Epic of Gilgamesh to the Obama era, and from gold to oil, has continued to define our modern world.

CONGO, 1905 - LE RAPPORT BRAZZA, LE PREMIER SECRET D'ÉTAT DE LA "FRANÇAFRIQUE"

TRISTAN THIL / VINCENT BAILLY

An exciting and detailed investigation into the first state secret of 'French Africa', with additional backmatter by Catherine Coquery-Vidrovitch, the historian who rediscovered the report.

1905: the press pounces upon crimes committed against the local peoples of Congo, then a French colony. Sent out into the territory on a four-month mission, famous explorer Pierre Savorgnan de Brazza and his fellow investigators will cover hundreds of kilometers, question many witnesses, and make many macabre discoveries — all this despite zealous obstruction from the French. Against the government's expectations, he composes a veritable formal accusation against colonial France. Deemed too explosive and scandalous at the time, the report is locked away in a safe at the Colonial Ministry. Never before published, it was believed lost...

LA TERREUR DES HAUTEURS

JEAN-CLAUDE DENIS

Jean-Claude Denis is afraid of heights. And that's what his new book is about: a subject as personal as it is universal.

Hiking with his partner on the 'Customs Officers' Trail' along the sea, the author suddenly stops short: 'It began with a vague sensation of sadness, a diffuse feeling of absence and abandonment. I was caught completely off guard.' But, by what? A dizzying fear of the empty void beneath him, that monster from deep in the imagination that always triumphs over reason. In a word: vertigo, which 'swallowed up all capacity for coherent thought.' The author recalls these moments of panic that have marked his life and recounts his — at times a bit shameful, whether bizarre and familiar, but always with humor and the profound sensitivity and lightness of touch that are trademarks of his work.

MILADY OU LE MYSTÈRE DES MOUSQUETAIRES

SYLVAIN VENAYRE / FRÉDÉRIC BIHEL BASED UPON THE NOVEL BY ALEXANDRE DUMAS

What if the real hero of The Three Musketeers was a heroine? A revolutionary take on Alexandre Dumas' novel in comics form by telling the musketeers' story from Milady's point of view.

Taking as their starting point a message Dumas purportedly hid in his novel – a message undiscovered till this day – Venayre and Bihel put a modern spin on the mystery of the Musketeers, that story of manly comradery among D'Artagnan, Athos, Porthos, and Aramis in the time of Louis XIII, long since become a literary legend.

LE SUAIRE VOL. 2 - TURIN, 1898

ÉRIC LIBERGE / GÉRARD MORDILLAT / JÉRÔME PRIEUR

A tale of passionate obsession revolving around the Shroud of Turin, at once its object and emblem.

Le Suaire takes place over several centuries in very different locations around the world. It begins in France in the 14th century, moving to the upper middle class of Turin in 19th-century Italy, and finally to the Sierra Nevada desert of Spain in our own era. Its three main characters travel through time and space, ever part of the same story. The paths traveled by Lucie, Thomas, and Henri are those of an amorous passion whose stakes are the capture of the shroud. But what is the shroud, exactly? An authentic relic of the Passion of the Christ, or a clever medieval forgery, a painted fake?

FLESH EMPIRE

YANN LEGENDRE

In a world called Singularity, residents are humanoids, constituted by a complex artificial technological non-biological system. Each of them saves its knowledge in a central program, the DataCenter, the collective digital memory of Singularity. Faced with overpopulation and a Data Center on the verge of saturation, the Senate is looking for a solution to avoid erasing personal data, therefore terminating some residents. In this world, a scientist, Ray Zimov, helps the beautiful Duchess developing a revolutionary material: flesh.

CHRISTIAN LAX

Christian Lax joins the Louvre collection with a polemical tale siding with victims of violence, war, and poverty who are trying to reach our shores in hopes of a better life...

In Mali, a Red mother and Child – a 14th-century sculpture – is saved from the Islamists' destructive folly by Alou, a young honey hunter. His goal and obsession: to deliver the precious statuette to the Louvre, where for a while at least, it will be safer with its 'sister' statue. In pursuit of his goal, this young man will risk anything, crossing seas and deserts in the company of migrants, his brothers and sisters in misfortune. But once in Paris, he is just another undocumented refugee among countless others. How will he enter the Louvre, and whom can he trust with the precious statuette?

LILY A DES NÉNÉS VOL. 1

GEOFF

Growing up, what does it mean?

Lily is 10 years old. She lives in France, in a small Breton village, with her parents and her twin brother, Titouan. In her village, there are 200 inhabitants, a lot of fish and a lot of rain, but Lily is not bored too much, and for good reason: she is secretly in love with Joshua, an inaccessible and popular boy... When she learns that Titouan wants to join Joshua's band, Lily tries to pretend to be her sibling, discovering at the same time that her body has changed and she's not quite a child anymore...
